

Theatre in the round

programme

The Square Cat

by
Roland Allan

Sidney Glover	David Campton
Alice Glover, his wife ...	Dona Martyn
Steve Glover, his son ...	William Elmhirst
Susan Glover, his daughter	Faynia Jeffery
Jerry Wattis	Alan Avckbourn

The scene of the play is a large country house just outside London. The action of the play takes place over one week end. The lights will be lowered to denote the passage of time.

The play will be acted through without an interval

Coffee will be served in the rock and roll bar before and after the performance.

Please do not smoke in the theatre.

Nylon Stockings by Kayser Bondor.

Furniture kindly lent by John Moore, Huntriss Row.

China kindly lent by Henry Dell's China Shop, 37 Victoria Road.

Soft drinks kindly supplied by Clarkes Aerated Water Co. Ltd., Clifton Street.

Front of house assistance has been kindly arranged by the Scarborough Theatre Guild.

The Square Cat

presented by Studio Theatre Limited
at the Library Theatre, Scarborough
1959 Summer Season

Director	Stephen Joseph
Manager	David Campton
Stage Manager	Ann Hughesdon
Assistants	Rosemary Green Don Brown
Box Office	Margaret Boden
Local Hon. Secretary ...	Ken Boden

The Studio Theatre Limited acknowledges financial assistance from the Arts Council of Great Britain.

The company is grateful to the director and Libraries Committee for help and co-operation in setting up the theatre in the round. We are also grateful to them for the display of old Scarborough play bills in the exhibition room.

Future Programme

On Thursday 3rd September we bring back into our repertoire Alas, Poor Fred by James Saunders. This highly successful play will run until the end of the season, the final performance being on Saturday 12th September. The author is a successful script-writer for radio. He has written a very funny comedy for us with a strange mood of its own. With Alas Poor Fred we are presenting a short romantic drama Halfway to Heaven by H. Valentine.